

A friendly but firm warning to all politicians concerning this Statement:

We the people hereby Serve Notice, under Common Law, to all elected politicians, of all parties in Great Britain, that failure to take action to restore the British people's Sovereignty, and to overturn the treason and criminality that has occurred and is occurring at the highest levels in this country, will lead to charges of being personally complicit in this treason and criminality and therefore liable to prosecution under Common Law.

A DEFINITIVE STATEMENT EXPOSING THE POLITICAL TREASON AND CRIMINALITY
CURRENTLY BEING CARRIED OUT ON THE LAW-ABIDING PEOPLE OF THE BRITISH ISLES.

We, the British people, now KNOW what is being done unlawfully in our name and are now taking back our country from the highly-placed traitors and criminals by using the precedence of Common Law over Parliamentary Statutes and by carrying out effective and peaceful actions under our ancient right to Lawful Rebellion under Article 61 of Magna Carta 1215.

This is a definitive Statement made by the Common Law-abiding people of the British Isles directed at every democratically-elected man and woman at every level of the present British political system. Failure by any such elected representative to act decisively in response to this Statement of Exposure could potentially result in prosecution under Common Law for knowingly sanctioning acts of treason, fraud, conspiracy to deceive and complicity in shameful crimes such as the abuse of children. Politicians found on examination of their record to be directly involved in such treason and criminal acts will receive severe custodial sentences. Ignorance will be less than ever a defence – all the prima facie evidence is there for elected representatives and ordinary people to see and charge sheets against key individuals are currently being drawn up to start the judicial process under Common Law to put an end to this establishment-led treason and criminality.

It is clear, beyond all reasonable doubt and with evidence that would stand up in any properly-conducted court of law, that an influential network of rogue British politicians across the parties is unlawfully involved in carrying out the hidden strategies and agendas of a centuries-old, secretive and criminal global elite who are seeking the imposition of unlawful global governance on the unsuspecting peoples of the world. Known broadly by researchers as the New World Order (NWO) - though some refer to them as the Illuminati or Zionists (please note that this does not mean Judaism) - the modus operandi of these powerful traitors and criminals is now clear for all to see.

Only a complete fool, or someone who is complicit at some level with what is really going on, would deny the existence of such a global elite network. The Committee of 300, the Bilderberg Group, the Trilateral Commission, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Club of Rome, to name but just a few of this network's component institutions, are where powerful international bankers, politicians, industrialists, media moguls and members of traditional bloodline royal and aristocratic families meet in secret behind closed doors to draw up their criminal strategies and agendas for achieving global government on their terms. Detailed instructions are then passed down to their subservient and compartmentalised national networks of influential politicians, industrialists, campaigning groups, charities and key individuals in trusted positions who then continue with their own treasonous and criminal work in seeking to undermine even further the very fabric, infrastructure and integrity of the country they are supposedly serving. Not surprisingly, any detailed research and investigation into people involved in this network, or into the network itself, often results in flat denial, ridicule and even threats.

There are currently six major areas of public and political concern where this 'hidden hand' of the New World Order has unlawfully involved itself with the affairs and well being of the British people:

1. Banking, the National Debt and the Budget Deficit

Using deception and what can only be described as criminality on a scale virtually incomprehensible to any fair-minded and law-abiding citizen, the House of Rothschild, along with other related bloodline banking families such as the Rockefellers and the Warburgs, have over the past three centuries manoeuvred into place a far-reaching and all-powerful banking and business empire, with one aim and one aim only, to break down and destroy traditional society in favour of a New World Order based on wealth and power rather than on merit, virtue and 'the common weal'. This they have achieved by variously setting up controlled Central Banks, by funding and encouraging both sides in major wars, by the creation and use of fractional reserve banking and by grooming compliant and treacherous politicians of all political persuasions to support them. Whole countries and peoples have been plunged into massive debt through the loaning out of enormous amounts of money that doesn't exist whilst at the same time exorbitant amounts of interest are charged on this invisible and non-existent money. For the Rothschilds – the main driving force behind the criminal New World Order – debt, quite simply, equals control and servitude. As Mayer Amschel Rothschild said in 1838 "Permit me to issue and control the money of a nation and I care not who makes its laws".

In other words, the enormous national debt and budget deficit currently threatening the well-being of the British nation and resulting in the huge defence cutbacks which will give us the smallest navy for our seafaring island since Henry VIII, have been brought about by mass-deception and totally unlawful means. According to the Chancellor, George Osborne, a Rothschild puppet and attendee of three Bilderberg Group meetings (along with his mentor Ken Clarke who belongs to the inner sanctum of the Bilderbergers), the interest alone to these devious and criminal bankers is costing Britain £125 million a day.....or nearly £45 billion a year! What wealthy and industrious country in its right mind would allow itself to be forced to borrow money which doesn't actually exist from bankers and then pay exorbitant amounts of interest on it? It defies all logic, it is insanity.....but not to the traitors in parliament who have sold out Britain's future to the criminals of the New World Order.

However, the solution is very simple! Under Common Law, the national debt and budget deficit, not to mention the people's debts of personal loans and mortgages, having been arrived at by the use of criminal and treacherous deception can for this reason be dismissed and written off completely, leaving the British economy and the British people in an excellent and totally healthy position with no financial cutbacks needed. In future, the nationalised Bank of England (once it has been cleansed and cleared of all of its secretive dealings such as the mysterious Bank of England Nominees Ltd) will create interest free money based on the common wealth, repeat common wealth, of the British nation. The criminal bankers will be squeezed into oblivion with the ringleaders (the House of Rothschild), if they are stupid enough to remain in this country, being arrested and put on trial under Common Law.

2. The European Union and British Sovereignty

On the 10th August 1944, at the Maison Rouge Hotel in Strasbourg, a group of senior Nazi officials and industrialists, realising that the defeat of the Third Reich by the Allies was almost inevitable, came up with the idea of a Fourth Reich based around the long term formation of a new, centrally-controlled, economic European community. This was the blueprint for today's EU and the same fascist mindset, the NWO, is in the driving-seat as its protagonists seek to create other Superstate Unions including the proposed North American Union involving the USA, Canada and Mexico.

The British people, back in 1975, were given the opportunity of a referendum to decide whether or not they wanted to be a part of the European Economic Community. To the majority of the electorate this was a simple, benign case of furthering British trade and economic activity with Europe. No one voting then, apart from those close to the secretive tentacles of the NWO, could possibly believe that within three decades there would be a full-scale sovereignty grab by the unelected and unaccountable European Commission, supported by treasonous British politicians from all parties, who were happy to betray their country's sovereignty to this NWO creation – a creation that is emulating the old Soviet Union where the EU Parliament is a toothless talking-shop, whilst the real power lies with this unelected and unaccountable Commission which, in turn, is answerable to the House of Rothschild and the Committee of 300.

Particularly upsetting to the British people is the fact that their trusted Sovereign, Queen Elizabeth II, who swore at her Coronation to uphold British 'laws and customs' (Common Law) and the Sovereignty of the British Isles, has broken that solemn and binding Coronation Oath when she gave Royal Assent in 2009 to the unlawful pretended Statute which gave effect to the Lisbon Treaty and which then allowed foreign potentates of the European Union to issue directives and regulations which her officials then impose as if they had the authority of Parliament. From that moment Great Britain unlawfully changed from being a constitutional monarchy with all its safeguards to being a tyranny.

Equally disturbing, the British Parliament has a self-evident duty to protect the British people and their sovereignty from unlawful attack by ensuring that our defences are adequately equipped and funded to see off any envisaged threat from a foreign power or source. As a direct result of the entirely unlawful budget deficit and national debt, the British armed forces are being reduced to unsustainable levels (not helped by fighting an unlawful war in Afghanistan) which will directly compromise Britain's ability to defend itself without calling upon the outside help of other countries' armed forces. This is a deliberate policy to ensure that Great Britain is forced and compelled to become an integral member of the EU Elite Defence Group (as proposed by France's President Sarkozy), the EU Military Staff, and the EU Military Committee. This is treason at its worst and now the Lisbon Treaty has been ratified, there is now a 'legal', but not 'lawful', open door to have foreign troops on our streets should the circumstances be considered serious enough by the NWO globalists. The House of Commons should hang their heads in collective shame!

Over the last twenty years there has been a further assault on our national and public life through the imposition of a new breed of psychologically reprogrammed senior administrators, to be ready for the day when Britain is no longer a sovereign country but an Orwellian police-state/subdivision of the EU Superstate. Based around the rogue so-called 'charity' Common Purpose which dispenses so-called leadership training courses and in turn networks closely with other charities and 'think-tanks' such as the sinister Fabian Society with its slowly, slowly 'wolf-in-sheep's-clothing' agenda to bring about the NWO dream of totalitarian world socialism, this cancerous entity sucks in and reprocesses unsuspecting people in public service, deliberately targeting those with personal character flaws such as Narcissistic Personality Disorder (NPD).....with all of them eventually becoming the brainwashed victims of advanced neuro-linguistic programming (NLP). These so-called Common Purpose 'Graduates' are then set loose to disrupt traditional working patterns and cause mayhem in public service departments throughout the length and breadth of the land.

The evidence for this latest sinister trend is now overwhelming (<http://www.cpeExposed.com>) and thousands of Common Purpose 'Graduates' can be found in influential positions in the police, judiciary, government agencies, local government, the NHS and especially the mainstream media (there are hundreds in the BBC alone, many acting as 'gatekeepers' to prevent the real truth from going out on air). In local government, many genuine and well meaning local Councillors are finding themselves emasculated as Councils up and down the land have been bulldozed into accepting highly-paid Chief Executives (many on salaries more than the Prime Minister) lording over streamlined, fast-tracking 'Cabinets' which can ignore at will the wishes of the local people.

All of this, of course, is by very careful design and the high level traitors within the House of Commons, who deliberately and effectively frustrated democratic attempts to have a Referendum on the Lisbon Treaty, are openly defying the clear will of the British people who do not want to see the creation of a Soviet-style totalitarian EU Superstate. This 'totalitarian tiptoe' has to be stopped and the good news is that the people are now waking up to this treason and all is far from lost. Because Britain's sovereignty has been severely affected by criminal deception and treasonous activities, a simple resort to Common Law through the highest courts in the land can overturn completely everything that has been done since we joined the EEC/EU and can, at the same time, annul our membership of the EU. It really is as simple as that!

3. Climate Change, the Green Agenda and Eugenics

Yes, there is climate change happening.....as there has been for millions of years. But Man-made Global Warming or Anthropogenic Global Warming (AGW) is nothing but a monstrous scam perpetrated by the NWO through its so-called 'green think-tank', The Club of Rome. Mainstream politics and the media continue to promote this discredited science despite increasing opposition from tens of thousands of decent and honest scientists who know, in the words of Professor David Bellamy, that it is all "bad science". Before the Coalition starts voting through yet more Carbon Taxes and green restrictions on industry, this simple question should be asked by all MPs - why does Al Gore, chief protagonist and mouthpiece of AGW and who stands personally to become a billionaire with his carbon trading schemes, refuse point blank to take up Viscount Monkton's challenge to a live debate on American television to argue the science behind man-made global warming? The answer is really simple....he's afraid, very afraid!

After the University of East Anglia's 'Climategate' emails and the debacle at Copenhagen, Gore knows only too well that ordinary people will not buy into this rubbish any more, especially as CO2 is a benign gas that actually FOLLOWS temperature increases. The evidence is now completely damning. Take, for instance, the famous 'hockey stick' graph used to promote the case for AGW – quite deliberately, the proponents of man-made global warming had left out the Early Medieval Warming Period as this would have made a complete mockery of their ‘scientific’ case that the industrial activities of 20th century man had triggered the greenhouse effect. They also cannot explain the clear scientific evidence that the other planets in our Solar System are also displaying new temperature fluctuations, but people with common sense think it might just have something to do with that word ‘Solar’.

This whole scam is simply about advancing the NWO agenda to tax people more and to impose ever tighter control over them, not to mention the power it gives the UN and the EU to excessively control and regulate industry. Apart from green fanatics and stooges for the NWO, no right-minded and sensible people believe anything that comes from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), especially as it has now been successfully exposed by Viscount Monckton and others as being a political rather than a scientific body.

This article below reveals very well this growing scientific backlash against the proponents of AGW and how genuine and honest scientists are attempting to regain the moral high ground: <http://www.infiniteunknown.net/2010/10/12/professor-harold-lewis-global-warming-is-the-greatest-and-most-successful-pseudoscientific-fraud-i-have-seen-in-my-long-life/>

Related to all of this, there is also a very sinister undertone now coming from the ‘dark’ green movement which must be tackled head on. There is much about conservation and green human scale politics and economics that can be applauded and indeed carried out. But today, behind the friendly, benign image of ‘the Greens’, there is a much more sinister and darker mask that must be exposed. This is the United Nations’ 1992 plan of action for worldwide ‘sustainable development’ called Agenda 21 – a complete extreme socialist agenda which can only be described as fascism on a truly global scale.

In carrying out this Agenda 21, the collective mindset of the New World Order wants to see the global population reduced considerably by whatever means available. A very small number of extremist, but influential ‘scientists’ and ‘environmentalists’ such as James Lovelock, Pentti Linkola and Austin Pianka, backed up by powerful people like Bill Gates, Ted Turner and David Rockefeller, not to mention the agencies of the UN, are now openly advocating their support for a Malthusian-style cull of the ‘useless eaters’ of the planet, claiming that the world’s population of 6.8 billion is having a tremendously negative effect upon the planet and its ecosystems. They want to see a Planetary Regime (global governance) where, as Lovelock stated in a recent interview in the Guardian, “democracy must be put on hold”. These dangerous and fascist views are being absorbed by impressionable young people who have been brainwashed by the lies and bad science put out by the leaders of the green movement, and their dangerous influence in the classroom must be removed immediately. And one simple fact proves this. If you took 6 billion people and put them four to a house, with each house on a quarter acre of land, you could fit them all in Alaska and still have room to spare. The world’s population is not, repeat not, a problem.

However, in fairness, it must be said that the Greens are absolutely correct when it comes to their opposition to Genetically Modified Crops and Foodstuffs and their encouragement for all things natural and organic. As part of this planned dramatic reduction of the world’s population, the NWO, using the little known and what appears on the surface to be benign Codex Alimentarius or Food Code, is seeking full government and corporate control, especially for the benefit of the pharmaceutical industry, of both our local and global food production at the expense of diversity, safety and natural health remedies. It must be exposed and stopped in its tracks.

Indeed, the whole of the pharmaceutical industry must be urgently reviewed - along with the British Medical Association and leading medical research charities such as Cancer Research UK - as there is now overwhelming evidence to show that the medical profession as a whole is completely biased in favour of profit-led pharmaceutical medicine at the expense of so-called ‘Alternative Medicine’ which many proponents believe is safer, cheaper and much more effective. It is essential that there is a level playing field on which to test the efficacy of ALL possible medical cures – pharmaceutical or otherwise.

4. The War on Terror

Creating a ‘clash of civilisations’ between the West and Islam has been a long-term goal of the New World Order and its aficionados. To create fear amongst the democratic peoples of the world, especially in America, has also been high on their list as they sought to ‘legitimately’ assemble the controlling and surveillance infrastructure of the quasi-Orwellian police state needed to enforce their vision of the future. Sometimes, when seeking a way to advance their appalling globalist agenda, the NWO will use what is called ‘Problem – Reaction – Solution’. That is, they create a major Problem in the first place, they then make sure the ‘right’ Reaction comes from the people, and then they provide the ‘popular’ Solution which was part of their agenda all along but which the people would not have agreed to had the Problem not been triggered in the first place. When it comes to the ‘Problem’, usually it is something sudden, dramatic and decisive that generates a huge amount of fear and anger in the affected nation.

The favourite mechanism for triggering a ‘Problem’ is a False Flag event whereby something dramatic happens which is immediately blamed on your enemy or rival, but was in fact carried out by covert elements of your own side. History is riddled with such events such as Hitler burning down the Reichstag and blaming it on the Communists; the Israeli attack on the USS Liberty to make it look as if the Egyptians had attacked American forces; and the Gulf of Tonkin incident where the American destroyer Maddox was supposedly attacked twice by three North Vietnamese torpedo boats but which in fact never happened.

In the words of past masters of the New World Order agenda, the Nazis: "The bigger the lie, the more it will be believed" (Joseph Goebbels) and "If you tell a big enough lie and tell it frequently enough, it will be believed" (Adolf Hitler)

The War on Terror, which has claimed the lives of hundreds of thousands of innocent Iraqis and Afghans and which is still claiming the lives of British soldiers in war-torn Afghanistan, was triggered by the dreadful events of the morning of 11th September, 2001. As far as the British political establishment and mass media are concerned, the official account of 9/11 is to be completely believed and anyone contradicting any part of the official narrative must simply be a misguided and deranged conspiracy theorist. This position, however, is now completely untenable. Airline pilots, architects, politicians, retired military officers and even some of the survivors themselves have gone public to state that they can no longer accept the official account as put forward by the Bush administration. And the physical and scientific evidence supports their concerns and doubts.

Take the Twin Towers for instance. Both came down at almost free-fall speed with no resistance being offered at all by the undamaged sections of the buildings. Also, the debris pile was considerably smaller than what would have been expected; many of the massive vertical steel girders holding up the buildings simply disintegrated into nothing as they fell. Burning aviation fuel alone cannot possibly cause this degree of damage – it cannot reach the temperatures required to distress steel to the point of collapse. In fact, no steel-framed building anywhere in the world has ever been completely destroyed because of fire....except Buildings 1, 2 and 7 at the World Trade Center. In other words, the official story of how the WTC towers came down is patently not true.

The same goes for the account of what damaged the Pentagon on 9/11; it is completely inconsistent with what you would expect from a crashing airliner. In fact the debris-field at the impact area is a joke – where are the wheels, the titanium engines and the wings? There are, quite literally, hundreds of problems with the official account of 9/11 which lead to the inevitable conclusion that this was a major False Flag event, artificially generated by the NWO to advance its plan for global domination. A few years back, the BBC documentary series The Power of Nightmares successfully exposed the fact that al Qaeda is no more than a contrived network of terrorists controlled by the Western and Israeli Zionist Rothschild intelligence services. It is also widely believed by nearly all researchers that not only is Osama Bin Laden dead (Benazir Bhutto, shortly before she was assassinated, stated in an interview with Sir David Frost that Bin Laden had actually been murdered) but that he has been dead for quite some years already and was definitely not the mastermind behind the 9/11 attacks.

As this short video shows, the 9/11 Truth Movement is growing globally in stature and in effectiveness. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3h-LwOkSbog>. Also, there are now many websites representing professional people who want to get to the truth about what really happened: <http://www.pilotsfor911truth.org> (airline pilots), <http://www.ae911truth.org> (architects and engineers), <http://www.militaryofficersfor911truth.org> (military officers), <http://mp911truth.org> (medical professionals), and <http://firefightersfor911truth.org> (fire fighters).

British politicians who have consistently refused to look at the evidence presented to them by the UK 9/11 Truth Movement must now be challenged to explain their inexcusable inaction, especially as British troops will remain in harm's way in Afghanistan as long as the official account of 9/11 is believed. And as long as the War on Terror is allowed to continue, rogue pro-NWO elements amongst the key intelligence agencies and special-forces around the world will continue to covertly carry out further criminal and treasonous False Flag attacks to keep the momentum of the long-term NWO agenda moving forward.

5. Common Law v Parliamentary Statutes – Lawful Rebellion

At this point in time there are still many people unaware of what is really going on in their name, who naively believe they are born free and trust that the rule of law will always protect them throughout their lives. If only this were true! Fortunately, thanks to the recent detailed work of researchers and experts on the British Constitution and Common Law, the real picture involving massive deception, entrapment and enslavement is now emerging. Once this truth becomes widely known, this House of Cards, so cleverly devised and set up over the centuries by those who seek to control the British people unlawfully, will simply collapse, and with it this conspiracy by the neo-Nazi global elite with their dreams of world government on their terms.

Magna Carta, the Great Charter of 1215, stands for freedom...freedom for all. It ensures that the British people enjoy absolute and unassailable Sovereignty within our land and that no one, without exception, is above Common Law. Common Law is the Law of the Land – if you harm somebody, cause loss to somebody, commit a breach of the peace or conduct your affairs with mischief, you will come under Common Law jurisdiction where your peers, through the jury system (Court de Jure) will decide your innocence or guilt. It is about principles, customs, precedents and established practices, not to mention good old-fashioned common sense – very simple and very effective.

However, over the centuries, the ruling political elite of the land (precursors to the out-and-out criminals driving today's New World Order agenda), using deception on a massive scale, have gradually created this new entity known as Statute Rules by passing Acts of Parliament, effectively overruling the British people's traditional freedoms and paving the way for the complete loss of our national Sovereignty with the advent of the European Union Superstate.

What are Statutes? A Statute is a 'legislated rule of society given the force of law by the consent of the governed' (Black's Law Dictionary, revised 4th edition). Please note where it says 'by the consent of the governed' – this means that a Statute cannot impact on the sovereignty of an individual should that individual not give his or her consent to abide by the jurisdiction of that particular rule. However, in fairness, it must be said that Statutes are meant in principle to be instruments for the general betterment of society. They establish the rules and regulations for the benign control of that society. Unfortunately, those with duplicitous agendas have ensured that Statutes have turned into tools of repression by becoming unwieldy, intrusive, oppressive, onerous and fundamentally unfair. Speed cameras, parking tickets, rubbish bins with their lids slightly open at one end of the spectrum, right through to 'anti-terrorism' legislation being used by councils and the police to harass innocent people, not to mention the hundreds of 'laws' coming in from the European Union Superstate.

Currently, especially after the planned surge of thousands of new Statutes under the previous Blair/Brown administrations (both puppets to the NWO), Parliamentary Statutes or Rules of Society are being voted into existence as a direct result of politicians who have either become willingly complicit in pursuing the Orwellian aims of the New World Order, or who simply accept the instructions of their leaders and party whips without question in order to climb their own 'greasy poles' to a 'successful' political career. Of course, the finished Statute is given a veneer of respectability and gravitas to make it seem like a proper 'law' for the 'benefit of the people', but the bottom line is, it is just a Statute or Rule of Society, whose authority or jurisdiction people can individually decide whether or not they wish to comply with or stand under. Common Law is the ultimate protective shield for the British people and it can trump any Statute it wishes – it is supreme and applies to everyone without exception.....but the rogue politicians and judiciary do not want the British people to know this. They, instead, want to remove the fundamental rights of the British people and place them in commercial servitude to the corporate state, to the European Union.....and ultimately, to the New World Order.

These treasonous politicians and rogue elements within the judiciary are crudely attempting to bludgeon the British people into accepting Corpus Juris, the embryo of a future European Criminal Code. This would mean the British people giving up their ancient rights to Habeas Corpus and to accept without a whimper the European system of Justice where you are 'guilty' until proved 'innocent' and where you can be imprisoned for weeks, possibly even months without any evidence being produced against you.

This unlawful legal control system that has been set up by the political elite, the judiciary and the Law Society (with their unfathomable 'legalese' which is primarily designed to keep the bulk of the population in complete ignorance of what's happening), along with the corporate and banking sectors, is now starting to be challenged by those who understand the complete supremacy of Common Law over Statute Rules. Recently, we have seen the spectacle of Judges and Magistrates fleeing from their own courts when challenged by ordinary decent lay people as to whether or not they are acting under their solemn oaths of office when judging a case involving a breach of a Statute Rule (speeding offence, non-payment of the unlawful Council Tax etc. etc.). These solemn oaths only refer to upholding the Common Law and not to the rules of Society. People are now rapidly waking up as to how this massive deception and extremely profitable fraud works and it won't be long before these unlawful de facto courts become paralysed with the people taking back the actual courts in the name of Common Law and real justice.

Under Lawful Rebellion, demands will be made by the people to establish Common Law Courts (Court de Jure), presided over by Common Law Judges with properly sworn in juries and backed up by solicitors and barristers who have turned their backs on the Law Society and its fraudulent dealings. Likewise, again under Lawful Rebellion, good and honest senior police officers will be asked to take back their police stations and Constabularies on behalf of Common Law, whilst all those other senior police officers who are Common Purpose Graduates and who are known to be politically motivated or are members of Secret Societies will be suspended from duty and subjected to fair and open Common Law hearings to investigate their suitability to remain in post.

Another part to this unlawful control system is the corporatisation of every aspect of British life and the massive deception being practiced on every living sovereign being in the British Isles. In Great Britain, when a baby is born, the parents are ordered by the State to have the birth registered – failure to do so results in a fine (Statute Rule). What the parents don't realise is that by registering their baby, they are in effect surrendering their 'ownership' of the baby to the Corporate State and their child has now become a 'corporation' within 'UK plc'. (The same applies to registering a car with the DVLA – the owner is no longer 'the owner' but is now merely 'the keeper'). At the time of registering a baby, a 'legal fiction' is then created with the same name and this legal fiction will be used for all correspondence and transactions concerning banking, legal matters, taxation and Statute rules. A 'person' has thus been created but it is not a living, breathing human being with a soul, but is simply a legal fiction used to conduct business in this imaginary and controlling corporate world – a corporate world set up by the criminal elite where the government, political parties, the police, local government and every aspect to organized life are registered and recognised as corporate businesses to be run by Statute Rules and not by Common Law.

6. The Abuse of Children – Establishment Paedophilia

The evidence which proves that treason has taken, and is taking place at the highest levels by politicians from all parties, is overwhelming. However, one aspect of this conspiracy to destroy the sovereignty and the very fabric of the British nation is just so appalling and so disgusting that it has shocked to the core everyone who has come into contact with the evidence. Acts of treason by people holding positions of authority and trust is one thing, the abuse and rape of little children is quite another. Researchers at first couldn't quite believe what they were uncovering, but now there is absolutely no doubt that a very small number of senior politicians, members of the judiciary, and people holding positions of trust and authority in the police, the social services, the media and the legal and medical professions are either actually involved with paedophile rings harming and abusing young children, or they are actively engaged in cover-ups to prevent this dreadful truth from ever getting out there into the public arena.

Every elected member in the House of Commons, the Scottish Parliament, the Welsh Assembly, the Northern Ireland Assembly as well as the Judiciary and the Constabularies of England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland are hereby served Notice that the decent law-abiding people of Great Britain and Northern Ireland will not rest until all the perpetrators and protectors of these disgusting crimes are brought to justice under Common Law.

It is clear from information coming in from other countries, such as Belgium, that some of the most senior proponents and advocates of the so-called New World Order are directly involved in this sexual abuse of children. Researchers have discovered compelling evidence that in some cases this actually involves children being used in Satanic, dark energy rituals where they sometimes pay the ultimate price. It is certainly true that the police all over the world know of tens of thousands of children going missing never to be heard of again. This is all just so appalling that it is hard to come to terms with what is being discovered.

To illustrate just how truly appalling things are, in Great Britain, or in Scotland to be more precise, a high profile case of a well connected paedophile ring based in Aberdeen, who sexually abused a girl with Down's Syndrome, has caused a furore on the internet whilst the mainstream media and rogue elements within the Scottish government, judiciary and police have entered into a criminal pact to suppress the truth from ever coming out. Go to www.holliedemandsjustice.org to get the full story. This is just one case that illustrates how children are being harmed and how the mainstream news media look the other way with their Common Purpose 'gatekeepers' or editors making sure the truth never gets out. Give the people 'X Factor', Wayne Rooney and Lady Gaga, but never give them the truth!

Another very disturbing aspect to this child abuse are the actions of some rogue social workers who, using the unacceptable secrecy of the Family Courts where corrupted or seriously misguided members of the judiciary commit dreadful acts of injustice, have orchestrated forced adoptions and overseen happy children being taken away from loving parents. In a small number of these quite appalling cases it is clear that these actions by rogue social workers are part of a cover up to protect the guilty parties involved with this establishment paedophilia. In most cases, however, it is all about the meeting of Government targets and the generating of large sums of money for a small number of people at the expense of children's happiness and parental love and security.

Well known and high profile journalist and author, Christopher Booker - a sceptic of Man-made Global Warming and the European Union and who has repeatedly written about forced adoptions and the secrecy of the Family Courts - writing in The Sunday Telegraph on 31st October 2010, has exposed facts which the establishment abusers of children would rather remain hidden. Entitled Child protection: MPs must act on the scandal of seized children - Britain's child protection system is off the rails, and only the politicians who built it can fix it, Christopher Booker writes:

"Britain's social workers took a beating again last week. On the orders of the children's minister, Tim Loughton, full versions of two harrowing case reviews of the Baby P tragedy were published. They found fault not only with Haringey's social workers but with lawyers, the police and health professionals, Under pressure from social workers, reviews of two similar cases in Yorkshire are still being kept under wraps. Meanwhile, an Ofsted report found that 119 children died or suffered serious injury last year through social workers' failure to intervene.

Still largely hidden from view, however, is that other scandal, in its way just as disturbing, in which the failure of our child protection system is the very opposite: the seizure of thousands of children a year from loving homes, for no good reason.

In recent months, as I have followed dozens of these cases and been briefed on many more by such experts as John Hemming, the MP who runs the Justice for Families campaign, and Ian Josephs, the former councillor who has helped hundreds of families through his Forced Adoption website, a startlingly consistent picture has emerged. What follows is not based on exceptional cases but on the typical workings of a system which has gone horrifyingly off the rails.

For parents who fall foul of this system, often on no more evidence than malicious hearsay, the first shock is to find themselves treated like dangerous criminals. To seize children, social workers seem able to enlist the unquestioning support of the police, who arrive mob-handed, six or eight at a time, beating down doors, tearing babies from their mothers' arms, holding parents in custody for up to 36 hours while their children are removed into foster care.

The parents must then wrestle with a Kafka-esque system rigged against them in every way. They find themselves in courts where every normal principle of British justice has been stood on its head. Social workers may give written evidence to a judge which the parents aren't allowed to see. The most outrageous hearsay evidence may be accepted by the court without the parents even being allowed to cross-examine on it.

A key part is played by evidence from supposed "experts", psychiatrists or paediatricians who may be paid up to £35,000 for their reports, and who receive regular work from the social workers involved. Parents are forbidden to call their own independent experts to challenge a case made against them. They are, all too often, pressured into being represented by lawyers who, again, work regularly for the council, who fail to put their case and who turn out to be just part of the same system.

Parents may be forbidden to testify on their own behalf, but must listen for hours, even days, to everyone else involved – including their own lawyers – putting what amounts to a case for the prosecution. The guardian appointed to represent the interests of the child may never have met the child and merely endorses whatever the social workers say.

Not surprisingly, these bizarre practices are so geared to the interests of a corrupted system that, in the latest year for which we have figures (2008), of 7,340 applications for care orders made by social workers, only 20 were refused.

Meanwhile, the children themselves are handed over to foster homes, which receive £400 a week or £20,000 a year for each child, and where many are intensely unhappy and not infrequently abused. Foster carers and social workers routinely conspire to tell bewildered children that their parents neither love them nor want them back. Children and parents meet at rigorously supervised "contact sessions", where any expression of affection or attempt to discuss why the children have been taken from home may be punished by termination of the session or denial of further contact.

The purpose of all this, funded by hundreds of millions of pounds of public money, is partly to keep in being the vast fostering industry, run by dozens of agencies, often owned by ex-social workers, which also receive £20,000 a year for each child they place. Of course, there are many good and responsible foster parents, but statistics show that children in care do very much worse on almost every count, from health to performance in school, than children living with their birth parents.

Another purpose of the system is to ensure that as many children as possible are adopted (at a cost of £36,000 per placement), in accordance with Tony Blair's personal commitment a decade ago that the target for adoptions in Britain should rise by 40 per cent. Councils are still receiving millions of pounds a year for meeting adoption targets.

Yet virtually none of this reaches the outside world because the system is hidden behind an almost impenetrable veil of secrecy. The nominal reason for this is to protect the identity and interests of the children, but secrecy has been so extended that its real aim is to protect the system itself and all those who do so well out of it.

Parents are forbidden to talk to the media or even to their MPs about the injustice they are suffering. Several times in recent months, councils have sought injunctions to prohibit me reporting anything at all about a case, even though no person or even the council itself would be identified. More than once, parents have been threatened with contempt of court and prison if they talk to me or anyone else about how they are being treated.

Very occasionally a judge or senior lawyer breaks ranks by speaking out against such abuse of state power, as when one Court of Appeal judge recently compared the conduct of a council's social workers to what went on in "Stalin's Russia or Mao's China". But in general this cruel, dishonest and venal system continues on its way, hidden from view, accountable to nobody but itself.

The only people in a position to reform this system fundamentally are those who set it up in the first place under the 1989 Children Act – the politicians. But they have, with one or two shining exceptions – notably John Hemming – walked away from the Frankenstein's monster that Parliament created. It is now up to them to support Mr Hemming and all those horribly maltreated families who are campaigning for one of the most outrageous scandals in Britain today to be brought to an end”.

Final Conclusion: A Tsunami is rolling in on British politics!

“There is one thing stronger than all the armies in the world, and that is an idea whose time has come.” Victor Hugo

Everyday, more and more people are waking up and experiencing that sudden realisation and idea that they are being unlawfully controlled and herded by a tiny international network of powerful and evil psychopaths and by the political, economic and legal systems they have created. An open and honest mind, without vested interests and greed, can see what is happening and it certainly doesn't require a genius to see how all the dots are connected.

As a result, British politics is about to be hit by the biggest rebellion since the signing of Magna Carta in 1215. The genie is now well and truly out of the bottle - the hard Truth is there for all good and decent people to see. Truth - that will stand up in Common Law Courts and expose the criminals and traitors! Truth – that will sweep away fear and restore real happiness to all families! Truth - that will release the British nation and its people from all of their unlawful debts and sweep away the criminal banking and financial system created by the Rothschilds! Truth - that will restore Britain's Sovereignty! Truth – that will stop the War on Terror and will get the troops home from Afghanistan! Truth – that will bring an end to the lies about so-called Man-made Global Warming and to the politics of Eugenics! Truth – that will trigger an abrupt end to the criminal aspirations of the New World Order and which will release all the peoples of the world from the clutches of debt, poverty and injustice! Truth – that will see the release of suppressed science, technologies and medical cures (Tesla and Free Energy, Rife and Cancer Cures to name but two)! And Truth – that will stop the sexual abuse and murder of little children by organised establishment-led paedophilia!

With a ‘manifesto’ like that coming towards them like a tsunami, the British politicians now have a very simple choice. On the one side you have the practicing of politics that leads to debt, enslavement, murder, paedophilia and the ultimate pursuit of unlawful global governance.....on the other side you have the exposure of truth that will give the British people real freedom, security and happiness – it's really that simple! The political parties are all completely irrelevant – they have all been compromised and are all ultimately controlled by the same secretive power base and mindset that makes up the New World Order.

What is coming to replace conventional politics is a Movement – a Movement not based around leaders, hierarchies, power bases and vested interests. But a Movement that will be forged by Common Law, wisdom, decency, humility and truth; a Movement that harnesses happiness, love and real freedom. Once the process of dismantling the systems of control, fear and suppressed truths is completed (with the precedence of Common Law in situ to protect the people from any possible resulting violent unrest and criminality), the British people will then come together in a new spirit of openness and freedom never seen before to explore how they wish to live their lives in the future.

This IS the future and it's coming fast. There is absolutely no grey area for politicians to prevaricate and hide in - no fence or wall to sit on. The choice is simply this. Side with the British people, who number in their tens of millions, and become active in exposing and defeating the New World Order with its matrix of fear and control.....or face the wrath of the British people as they successfully apply age-old and supreme Common Law against those who have betrayed them and whose ringleaders number no more than a few hundred at most. The politicians of all parties have been warned – it's now their call! Will they do the decent thing.....or will they experience trials by Common Law and suffer the consequences! The choice is theirs and they only have a very short time in which to make their decisions.
